Official Paper of County and City

The anti-Sunday base ball bill has been embalmed. The Solons will wrangle over it again two years hence.

The public utilities bill is "a gone'er." When it comes to regulating corporations the republican party isn't there.

Tomorrow is inaugural day at Washington. Advance notices say it will surpass all previous occasions for splendor and extravagance.

The lower house seems to be balking on the senate bill to raise the president's salary. That little matter will probably be ironed out at the special session.

The jointist convicted the third time for selling intoxicants is good for a term in the penitentiary with the parole privilege denied, according to the terms of a law passed last week.

Notwithstanding the charges being made by republican papers of Kansas now, they will all be claiming in the next campaign that the platform pledges have been redeemed by the legislature.

"Mr. Speaker, I arise to introduce an anti-bucketshop bill."—suppos-ed speech of Hon. Samuel Griffin. "The bill introduced by the gentleman from Barber will be referred to the committee on irrigation. -supposed reply by the Speaker.

Honor bright, Mr. Republican, look over your state platform and point out if you can any material pledge that has been redeemed by the legislature, weak as those pledges were. Candidly, are you not becoming a little weary of mechanical voting?

At last report the bank guaranty bill was still in conference. It may live through and it may die there, but if it does come out it will look worse than a counterfeit 2-cent piece with a hole in it. This has been the greatest session in the state's history for make-believes,

Saturday, March 6th, is the day set for the adjournment of the legislature. This is one thing done by the legislature that everybody endorses regardless of party ties, but ninety-nine per cent of the people of Kansas would have been better satisfied if it had been done 40 days earlier.

Brandenberg stole and liedand later jumped his bond. But the newspapers that published his lies and the party that profited by his theft have not had the moral courage nor the common decency to make amends for the part they took in committing this great wrong. And this calls to mind that recently several democratic editors were indicted for libel at the direction of the national administration because they criticised certain operations in relation to the Panama deal, but here is a case of a confessed outrage against more than six million American voters and the administration is as silent as the tomb. Yes, it makes a difference whose ox is gored.

Here is an interesting bit of news furnished by the Washington correspondent for the New York Herald which shows how devoted Mr. Roosevelt is to a high principle: "President Roosevelt has forgiven at least one federal office holder for 'pernicious activity in politics' during the recent presidential campaign. He is Harry H. Myers, of Brinkley, Ark., and his nomination of registrar of the land office at Little Rock, Ark., was confirmed today. Mr. Myers held the position in the Little Rock office last October. Protests came to the president about that time charging Myers with the grossest kind of political activity, 'pernicious' and every other kind. The president had made a rule and he had to stand by it. So he removed Mr. Myers from office, or, to be more accurate, that official resigned. Lewis B. Eddy was appointed in his place. But the election was over long before December 14, and on that day Mr. Myers was nominated 'to fill a vacancy caused by his resignation,' and 'vice Lewis B. Eddy, temporarily appointed."

Pawned Honor.

Newspaper dispatches say that Broughton Brandenberg, under in-dictment in New York for grand larceny, has disappeared and has forfeited his bail bond.

Now who is Broughton Branden-berg and what was his offense?

During the late national campaign every newspaper that was fighting the democratic ticket made much of a letter printed first by the New York Times which letter, it was declared, had been written by Grover Cleveland. This letter pur-ported to be a denunciation of Mr. Bryan and an endorsement by the late former president of Mr. Taft.

Henry Watterson of the Louis-ville Courier-Journal was the first to question the authenticity of that letter. Mr. Watterson finally ran it down and as a result of the investigations he began Brandenberg was arrested.

Not one of the newspapers that wrote profound editorials giving character to the Brandenberg letter dares now speak in defense of their fugitive from justice.

But not one of these newspapers -from the highest to the lowesthas ever offered to its readers an apology for the publication of this fraudulent letter or for the editorial assuring its readers of the letter's genuineness. Not one of these newspapers dare say a word for Brandenberg the fugitive, but not one of them has spoken in defense of its own integrity.

Brandenberg is a fugitive but who will question the statement that the honor of the newspapers that stood sponsor for the Brandenberg letter is yet in pawn?-Commoner.

Worse and worse: Gov. Stubbs now announces that he will call a special of the legislature to redeem the party pledges. The "special" will begin immediately after the "regular" quits, it is presumed. This will allow the members to continue to draw pay. Poor Jones!
